CONTRIBUTORS

Julie Grob is Special Collections Librarian at the University of Houston Libraries. She chaired the first Task Force on Diversity for the Rare Books and Manuscripts Section of ACRL. She currently serves as chair of the RBMS Diversity Action Plan Implementation Task Force and as a member of the American Library Associations’ Committee on Diversity.

Suzy Taraba is head of special collections and university archivist at Wesleyan University in Middletown, Connecticut. She previously held positions at the University of Chicago, Duke University, Columbia University, and the Bakken Library and Museum. Taraba recently served as chair of the Rare Books and Manuscripts Section of ACRL. Her current research interests include teaching using special collections and archives, history of higher education, and nineteenth- and early twentieth-century images of women. An in-depth profile of Taraba appeared in the Hartford Courant on March 16, 2003.